
THE DIRECTOR'S AWARD FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE
BY A NEW EMPLOYEE

*J*ohn G. Iannarelli

Special Agent
Detroit Field Office

Presented to Mr. Iannarelli for his commitment to the mission of the FBI and the numerous significant accomplishments he has achieved during his first year as a Special Agent. After serving as the graduation spokesperson for his New Agents' Class, Mr. Iannarelli reported to the Flint, Michigan, Resident Agency and immediately immersed himself in several investigations. Demonstrating great resourcefulness and an innate ability to develop productive relationships with sources and other law enforcement personnel, he has realized the successful conclusion of a variety of different investigations, including parental kidnappings, child pornography, and interstate transportation matters. In addition, Mr. Iannarelli, realizing the importance of contact with the community, has volunteered to coordinate a local Adopt-A-School program. His determination and enthusiasm clearly make him a role model for other new employees. ♦
